

Addendum A – Insurance Requirements and Options

Full RV renter's insurance (comprehensive, collision, and liability) is required and documentation of this coverage must be provided to us at least seven (7) days prior to the first day of your trip.

Do you have Allstate, State Farm, Farmer's, USAA, or AAA Insurance?

The major auto insurance companies will provide coverage in the form of a special RV binder or endorsement, at no additional cost to you. Please contact your auto insurance agent immediately to start this process. He/she will need to know the dates of your trip, the names of all possible drivers, and the type of coverage desired.

What to tell your Agent:

The appropriate coverage is "Actual Cash Value" ($90,000) for this 2012 Roadtrek RS Adventurous and contents.

The Vehicle Identification Number is: WD3 PF4 CC9 B559 2718

Collision Deductible – $1000 or less

Liability coverage – The minimum limits required by the State of California are $15,000 for one person or $30,000 for two persons. If you have only minimum coverage, please ask your agent to give you a quote for higher limits ($300,000/$1,000,000, or even higher). The slight increase in the cost of your premium is well worth the additional benefits in the event of a serious or catastrophic accident.

The "Loss Payee" should be named as Eat Sleep Go, Inc.

The dates on your RV endorsement should start on the first day of your trip, and go through the day AFTER your planned return, as insurance coverage begins and ends at 12:01am on the dates specified.

If your auto insurance company does not offer RV renter's coverage:

Companies that do not provide RV rental insurance include Mercury, Geico, 20th Century, and Progressive. There are many more, so please check with your agent ASAP to explore your options, including switching one or more of your personal vehicles to a full service insurance provider, making you eligible for a no-cost RV Renter's endorsement.

If switching companies is not an option, and if you have no more than two (2) moving violations in the last three (3) years, you may purchase insurance coverage from our insurance provider, MBA RV Insurance. Please visit the MBA website at www.mbachoice.com
